

I purchased my XM radio about 2 months ago because I was fed up with local radio programming. It is one of the best investments I have made in a while. I am on the road often and it sure makes the trip more enjoyable. Now I can hear real jazz which is not available on local radio. I vote no to what the NAB is trying to do.